Summer Psalms: Royals

Psalm 8

Now I realize that the real sin is to deny God's first love for me, to ignore my original goodness. Because without claiming that first love and that original goodness for myself, I lose touch with my true self and embark on a destructive search among the wrong people and in the wrong places for what can only be found in the house of my Father.

Sermon Notes

My response to God today is to...

- Take time to consider my original goodness and the goodness of my desires.
- Consider how I can live differently knowing that God remembers and visits me by his spirit.
- Take a step that is one like a gardnerer in my life this week.
