FELLOWSHIP CHURCH

WELCOME. CULTIVATE. SERVE.

Minor Characters: The Betrayers
Mark 14: 43-52

At no point does the gospel come into more violent collision with the world than in its insistence on humility as the paramount virtue. The wisdom of the world despises humility. Western culture has been greatly influenced, often unconsciously, by the power-philosophy of Nietzsche, who envisaged the emergence of a “daring and ruler race.” His hero was the Ubermensch, tough, brash, masculine and overbearing, who would become a “lord of the earth.” But if the ideal of Nietzsche was the superman, the ideal of Jesus was the little child. There is no possibility of finding a compromise between these alternative models; we are obliged to choose.

Welcome!

We hope that you experience the welcome of God, the work of the spirit to cultivate gifts, and the calling to go with Jesus to serve all.

Our nursery is available for all children up till 3.5 (and they are welcome to stay in the service too!).

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Good Friday March 29th

Mark your calendars for our annual Good Friday service on March 29th at 6pm.

Discernment Next Steps

As the next step in our discernment process, the Council would like to gather the congregation together twice to share and listen together to what we've sensed from God. We think the easiest time to gather everyone will be a Sunday afternoon. Please indicate your availability on the sign up sheet on the table in front of the sound booth. We desire for everyone to attend both gatherings.

Sermon Outline:

1. The many betrayals
2. The drives behind the betrayals.
3. The response of Christ.

My response to God today is to...

- Reflect on what drove my own past moral failures.
- Consider how I can lay down my life this week.
- Lay down my fears and embrace my calling.
